Veteran Elisabeth adds to Midlands haul at BC's National Championships

Along with titles and reserve championships won by members of Midlands Carriagedriving (MC) at the British Carriagedriving (BC) National Championships held at Cricklands, veteran driver Elisabeth Greensmith enjoyed her own success in the Evolution Young Horse class with her gelding Charlee, a former RSPCA rescue horse.

Elisabeth and Charlee qualified at Escrick Park after the Regional competition was transferred from Allerton Park. A member of MC since 1993, Elisabeth has been a stalwart of the club and was very keen to compete at the National Championships. Although the sole representatives in the Young Horse category, she and Charlee scored a respectable 18.50 penalties in dressage and finished on a total of 81.07 after completing the cones course and four obstacles.
